Please join the Senate Transparency Caucus

Dear Colleague:

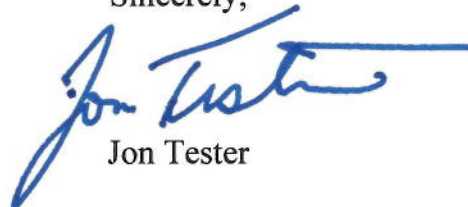

I am writing to invite you to become a member of the U.S. Senate's Transparency Caucus.

The best government is a transparent one. This is not a partisan issue evidenced by the good work being done by Republicans, Democrats and Independents in Congress. But we can and must do more to bring greater transparency and accountability to all branches of the government. It is my hope that this caucus can help facilitate this important work.

The Transparency Caucus will serve as a platform to discuss, craft and support measures to improve the oversight and transparency of all branches of the government. Whether it be ensuring access to public documents or shining more light on our campaign finance system, we can improve the responsiveness of the federal government to every American by working together.

I am looking forward to exploring and pursuing these and many other transparency initiatives in the 115th Congress, and I hope you will join me. If you would like to join the Caucus or have any questions, please contact Lindsay Erickson at 4-3075 (Lindsay_Erickson@tester.senate.gov).

Sincerely,

Jon Tester
